

Union Graduate College's Code of Conduct Regarding Private Loans and Student Choice

As a responsible partner in processing and certifying of private loans for students of Union Graduate College, the Financial Aid Office staff abides by the following code of conduct:

- Union Graduate College does not enter into any revenue-sharing arrangements with any lender.
- Union Graduate College does not allow any officer or person involved with student loans to either solicit or accept gifts from a lender, guarantor or servicer of student loans where the gift has more than a nominal value.
- Union Graduate College does not allow its financial aid staff or anyone in a position of having influence over student loan decisions to consult with lenders for a financial benefit.
- Union Graduate College will not assign a borrower's loan to a particular lender or refuse to certify any loan based on the borrower's selection of a lender.
- Union Graduate College will not request or accept any offer for student loan funds in exchange for either a specified number of loans made or a specific loan volume.
- Union Graduate College will not accept any offer from any lender to provide call center staffing or financial aid office assistance.
- Union Graduate College's Financial Aid Office staff will not accept anything of value for serving on an advisory board, commission, or group established by a lender, guarantor, or group of lenders.